

I do not support any changes which would allow or encourage further consolidation of media companies. Rather, I feel that too much consolidation has already occurred and that increased restrictions should be put in place to reduce monopolies that are occurring in the media outlets.

Free and varied media outlets are a requirement for a modern democracy to work. Further consolidation of media ownership threatens the very nature of our democracy.

Do the right thing for US citizens, DO NOT ALLOW FURTHER MEDIA CONSOLIDATION!

-Scott Edwards